

CPSC 2910

Lesson 1

Connie Taylor
Professor of Practice

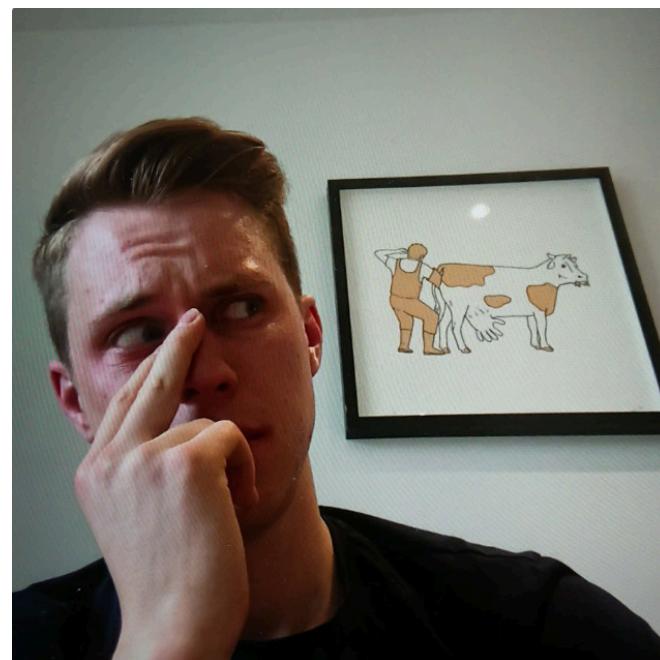

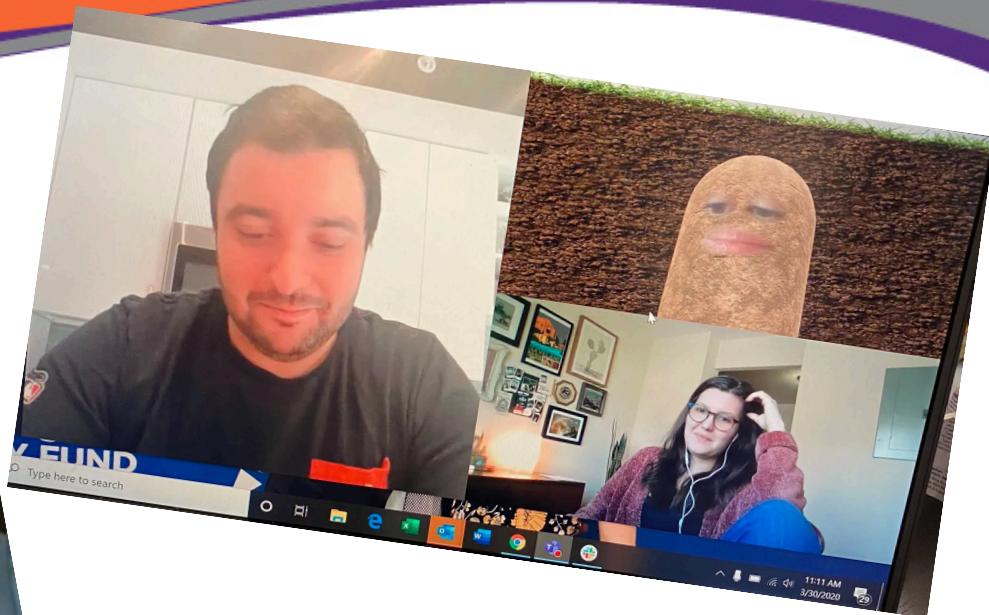

Welcome

- Zoom etiquette
- Introduction
- Syllabus Review
- Some Reflection
- Next Class

Zoom Etiquette

- I prefer students to have their cameras on if possible
 - Clothes are not optional
 - Use Zoom backgrounds to hide messy rooms and unplanned embarrassments
- Don't forget to mute when you are not talking
- I will do all possible to keep us engaged online- send me suggestions if something can be done differently, etc.

Zoom Etiquette Fails

Who is Prof Taylor

- My first year as a fulltime Professor!
- 30 years in software development in commercial software development companies
- Started as a C developer on a Top-Secret project for the Defense Department
- Managed large software teams with projects of up to 1000 team members
 - Healthcare
 - DTV
 - eCommerce
 - Supply Chain solutions
- Software development is awesome!

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/constanceltaylor>

What are we doing this semester?

- Discussion and debate on technology and society
- Getting ready for what's next
- We will be reading and there is a textbook!

https://www.ted.com/talks/adam.Alter_why_our.screens.make.us.less.happy

A black silhouette of Spider-Man is positioned on the left side of the image, facing right. He is shown in a dynamic pose, with one arm extended forward and the other pulling on a web. The background is a solid red color.

WITH GREAT POWER
COMES
GREAT RESPONSIBILITY

The text is written in large, bold, white letters with a blue outline. The word "WITH" is small and positioned above the first "GREAT". The word "COMES" is smaller and positioned above the second "GREAT". The words "POWER" and "RESPONSIBILITY" are the largest and most prominent.

Next Class

- Read Chapter 1 of the book
- Question 1.11 from the book -
Write a short essay (roughly 300 words) about some topic related to computer science or the Internet that interests you and has social or ethical implications. Describe the background; then identify the issues, problems, or questions that you think are important.
- Submit essay on Canvas (Turnitin enabled)
- Make sure you can get on Microsoft Teams and post questions in our channel